

Comment on
"Pressure Specification for LIGO"
by Alex Abramovici, 23 November 1988

It would be helpful to those referring to this document if the allowable pressures for each gas species were given explicitly. The values for hydrogen and water are already given as examples. The existing Table I could be expanded to show these values for all the gases.

Boude Moore

12/12/88