

From: Liyuan Zhang zhang_l@ligo.caltech.edu
 Subject: Weekly
 Date: April 23, 2015 at 6:40 PM
 To: GariLynn Billingsley billingsley_g@ligo.caltech.edu

The peek material, which may be used to make baffle for covering stainless screw heads, was measured at CASI for BRDF. The result (attached) shows that the integrated scatter is at the same order of magnitude as that of bare screw head. More materials or the same materials with designed surface structures need to be examined.

Thanks.
 Liyuan

